Make Priesthood And Homes Right, Speakers Charge

"We must work to make Priesthood and our homes right in the sight of the Lord, then the Church will be right," was theme of quarterly conference speakers at general sessions February 3 for Oakland-Berkeley Stake.

Representing general boards were Irene C. Lloyd, Relief Society, and Lucy Dutson, Primary, Both are grand-daughters of President Heber J. Grant.

Oakland-Berkeley Stake President O. L. Stone, after an expression of appreciation for all that has been accomplished in the stake, reminded parents that they formed a partnership with God when they brought children into the world.

He urged members to listen to their "built in computors" which will help them analyze where they are going in relation to where they ought to go.

We must resolve, he urged, to attend meetings, be careful about appearances avoid extemes, be honest, meet committments, seek good companions; and to ask the golden questions.

He challenged all members to pay full tithing and receive blessings therefrom.

Irene C. Lloyd, discussing the fact that we live in an age of miracles, said that machines do everything but take a mother's place. She urged Sisters to grow in knowledge of cooking, sewing, education theology; to participate in visiting teaching; to learn to organize our own homes; and to be of good cheer.

Lucy Dutson speaking of parental and teacher responsibility said that parents will be held accountable but the affect will be on the children if they are not helped along the path.

"You are miracle workers" she said, as you teach and work with youngsters. Teach them a way of life. Teach them the miracle of prayer and baptism."

Other conference speakers were: Minverva Bailey, stake Primary president; Irene Ranker, stake Relief Society president; Elmo R. Smith, first counselor and W. Paul Summerhays second counselor, in the Oakland-Berkeley stake presidency; and members of the High Council Leland J. Fife, Frank C. Higham, Albert P. Heiner and Paul Warnicke. One Ward Sends 2 Ball Teams To All-Church Meet

A rare church record was set February 16 when 40 basketball teams representing stakes in Region Two were reduced through a single elimination tourrament to a senior team and a junior team from the same ward. Oakland Third ward won the right to represent the Region in the all-church playoffs in Salt Lake City after two weeks of rugged, fast, point-for-point play. The Seniors ended the local season with no losses, the juniors with but one defeat prior to the region play.

The final games in the region tourney saw Mt. Rose lose 65 to 55 to the juniors; and American River lost 60 to 52 to the Third ward seniors.

Thousands of teams were screened through similar tourneys throughout the world in this biggest of basketball tournaments sponsored by the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

Most valuable player award for Region Two went to Carl Shelan of the seniors. Carl scored the most points in the tournament (95) as well as the most points in one game (32).

Junior division awards went to Dave Watson of Mt. Rose ward who piled up the most points in the tournament (95). Jerry Hilton and John Henderson, both of Oakland Third, tied for the most points per game with 23 each.

L.D.S. Notes and Quotes

DAWN-BREAKERS

Your editor never ceases admiring and appreciating the young people who attend the 6:30 a.m. Seminar classes in the Bay area. These young men and women are proving themselves ready to tackle the problems of the world. They are growing intellectually faster than many of their compatriots. They show their growth in the fact that they have better school records. The young men who attend seminary will fulfill wonderful missions because they will be prepared. The young women will be better mothers and live better home lives for their early-morning learning,

Even the drivers gain in this program.
They do things while waiting for the youngsters that they would ordinarily put off until the next day.

One driver—he wouldn't want want me to mention his name—but he is Supervising Elder in the Oakland Fourth ward district of the Oakland-Berkeley Stake Mission and his initials are G.H.—studies his missionary subjects while the young people attend Seminary. This example is probably repeated hundreds of times in the Bay Area.

If you want to really feel appreciation for sleeping in—drive seminary youngsters a day or two a week.

DUNK-INN DOUGHNUT SHOP RECOMENDED

Young folks of the Fourth ward seminary recommend for your consideration the doughnuts and rolls offered at the Dunk-Inn on High Street right next to the new Freeway construction, near MacArthur boulevard. I guess it would be o.k. with men like Ren Hoopes and Thad Afflack if we mention that the doughnut shop is across the street from the Safeway super-market.

(There's a story back of this plug for the doughnuts—I may tell you one day—in the meantime try them—they're good!)

WANTED: POLYNESIAN ART

If you have Polynesian art objects which could be displayed at the Polynesian village which is now under construction near the Oahu temple, describe the object in a letter (or send picture) to Lawrence Haneberg of the Honolulu stake presidency, Suite 314, First Insurance bldg., 1100 Ward Ave., Honolulu 14, Hawaii. Do not send objects until advised, he requests.

JET PILOT'S CAREER

Maj. Russell L. Rogers, a convert to the Church, and one of six pilots selected for the U.S. Air Force Dyna-Soar Aero Space program, said to students at Ricks College and Madison High school (Rexburg, Idaho), "My real career here on earth is Church work." He says his real goal is to be with his wife and family for time and eternity.

The Major has flown 25 different types of military aircraft while logging nearly 4,000 hours of flying time. He flew 12 combat missions in Korea, and received the Distinguished Flying Cross, Air Medal with Ten Oak Leaf Clusters and the Purple Heart.

My Testimony

Be Thou Humble . .

By Mabel B. Liddell

"Be thou humble; and the Lord thy God will lead thee by the hand and give thee answer to thy prayers." D&C 112:10.

"The Lord has choice blessings for us that he must withhold until we are willing to accpet the calls he makes of us." Bishop Don M. Grimes of Balboa Second Ward was most emphatic as he spoke these words. He is a young Bishop but his experiences have proved this statement over and over again.

Sometimes it was difficult to accept the calls made of him, but the Lord guided him when he was humble and his prayers have been answered in a beautiful way. For instance: All through his youth he had a hope that someday he would meet a girl that would help him create a happy marriage with a stable home life. love and children. After serving thirty six months in the Argentine mission and attending BYU for five years, where he associated with some of the choicest girls in the church, he was still not even close to marriage.

"I was twenty seven years old and was actually concerned. I prayed earnestly about finding the girl whom I should marry. Having seen much of divorce and unhappiness, I wanted a marriage that God would direct.

"After graduation from college, with a commission in the Air Force, I was sent to various bases in the southern states for eighteen months. I kept having the oddest feeling that in the south I would find my mate. But time went on and the last month in the south, before my permanent assignment, I was sent to Panamna City, Florida. There, the first Sunday I attended church. I met Carol. She was introduced as having only recently returned from a mission to the Southern States. I felt the most unusual attraction toward her and after dating for 2½ weeks I wanted desperately to ask her to be my wife. I was afraid to, however, for it didn't seem possible that I could be so sure after such a short acquaintence.

"After going to my permanent station near Tacoma, Washington, I could think of little else but Carol so decided to write her a proposal of marriage. She wired her reply in a never-to-be-forgotten telegram. When an urgent call came to me to rush to the Western Union Office, I was scared to death. As I read the words, "Yes. I love you.—Carol," I looked at the beaming faces in the room and knew they had all read my telegram. I was so embarrassed—but completely overjoyed.

"From that moment my whole life seemed to change. I had found my girl and I knew that the Lord had guided me to her. She felt the very same way, and a few weeks later she traveled by bus all alone from Florida to Salt Lake City so that we could be married for time and all eternity in the Temple of God.

"We then found that our Patriarchal blessings seemed to be meant for each other. I had been somewhat disappointed when receiving mine that it said so little about home and marriage, the very things I had hoped to know about. Instead it accented very strongly the calls that would be mine in the Priesthood. Now, upon reading my bride's beautiful blessings, I could see the reason. She was promised that choice spirits would be sent to her and she would provide the proper atmosphere for them to grow in. Even our blessings seemed meant to be read as one.

"We have had many trials since our marriage, but they have only helped solidify our union when we have been humble and willing to accept the Lord's way."

UP IN THE AIR for a 2-hander is John Henderson of Oakland Third ward's Region Two Champion Juniors as two "for him" and two "against him" seem to line up for the action. Shots like this, fast paced action, and frequent application of body-English were typical of the 20-team play-off at the Eastbay Interstake Center. Henderson (11) and Jerry Hilton (13) tied for most points scored in a single game with 23 each. (Photo by Phil Shurtleff.)

Cement Fixed, Boards Blacked

By Carol Hutchings and Shari Howard

Improvements for Oakland Second ward: The black boards were painted black. Compliments of the Sunday School. The usual winter mudhole between the curb and the sidewalk in front of the church has been replaced by a new, sparkling slab of cement. Compliments of Iva.

Karen Shaw will marry Russell Miller of Newark in the Los Angeles Temple March 29. The Bishop's family gave a shower for Karen recently at the Shaw home in the Oakland hills. Gifts were arranged around the large fireplace and 32 people enjoyed the evening.

Oakland Second ward's welfare dinner as successful: attendance was good, food excellent, and the Polynesian entertainment, especially the fire dance, was terrific.

In January, Oakland Second ward sponsored "An Evening of Music" featuring the talented Dorisse Coates and her violin. This was Dorisse's last performance before her move to Southern California. She has brought immeasurable pleasure to Sacrament meetings and other ward and San Leandro Stake functions. Since arriving here from San Jose, a little over two years ago, she has been music director of Relief Society, Primary, MIA, Sunday School, and organized and led the ward choir. She has taught in Primary, MIA and counseled at the YWMIA camp.

Baptisms: Oakland ward welcomes five New Year converts: Maragaret Louise Higgins, baptisized Jan. 11; Elenor May Lindsay, Jan. 26; and the Stanley children David, Allen and Sharon, all baptized Feb. 16.

Symphony And "Bluebeard" Here April 5

The Castro Valley Ward will present the San Leandro Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of conductor Jan deJong, in a concert Friday, April 5, 8:15 at the Eastbay Interstake Center in Oakland.

Featured on the program will be a concert performance of the opera, "Duke Bluebeard's Castle," a psychological thriller written in 1911 by Bela Bartok. This is an unusually beautiful score, not often performed in concert in this area. Soloists will be Alma Bonner, soprano, and Russell Marshall, bass. For this performance, the orchestra will be enlarged with extra brass, woodwinds, and organ.

Hugo Gehrke, well known Bay Area organist, will be featured as soloist in a Handel Organ Concerto. Mr. Gehrke, a faculty member at Concordia College in Oakland, has performed extensively in the Bay Area.

Also on the program will be the popular "Bolero" by Ravel, and Gabrielli's "Piano Forte" for double brass choir.

Suggested contributions: $1.50 for adults, 75c for children, through 15 years.

Oakland Third

8th Ward Award For Young Men

By Mary Westover

Every year since the Presiding Bishropric has been offering an award for excellence in programs for Aaronic Priesthood under 21, the Oakland Third ward has successfully qualified more than 50 per cent of the young men enrolled. This year 58% qualified.

Merrily Johnson, daughter of Richard and Verna Johnson, was recently involved in a serious accident, suffering cranial injuries. While her convalescence wil be slow, and at present she is permitted no visitors, her doctor feels that complete recovery will come; and the entire ward is praying for this result. When the Johnsons moved out of the ward Joan Porter was sustained as Music Director and Choir Director to replace Richard Johnson.

We regretfully released our Sunday School Superintendency after a long and successful period in office. New officers are Herbert Van Noy, Superintendent, and Mike Johnson and Bob Leiniger as Counselors.

Within the last month Steve Oswald and Ellen Pezzy have been baptized and confirmed.

Those who went on our last trip to the Los Angeles Temple were able to do more than 50 endowments, as well as other work in the temple.

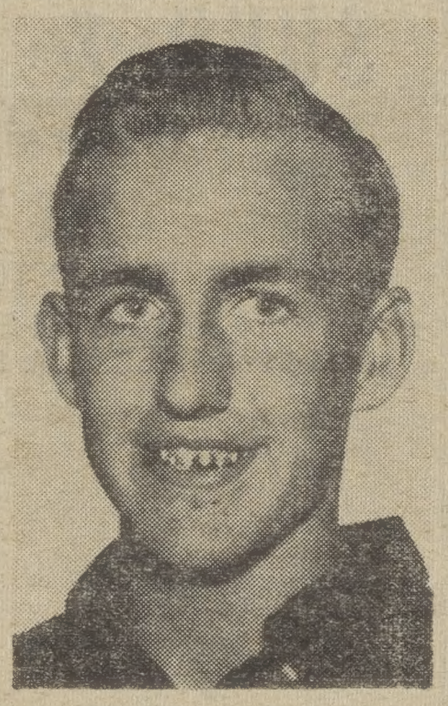
Fred and Grace Harkins, Herb and Neita Van Noy and Sherrill Shurtleff have been recently released as Stake Missionaries.

Vernon and Dorothy Burgess and Lester and Rosalie Johnson Kierkoff have each welcomed new daughters into their homes during the past month.

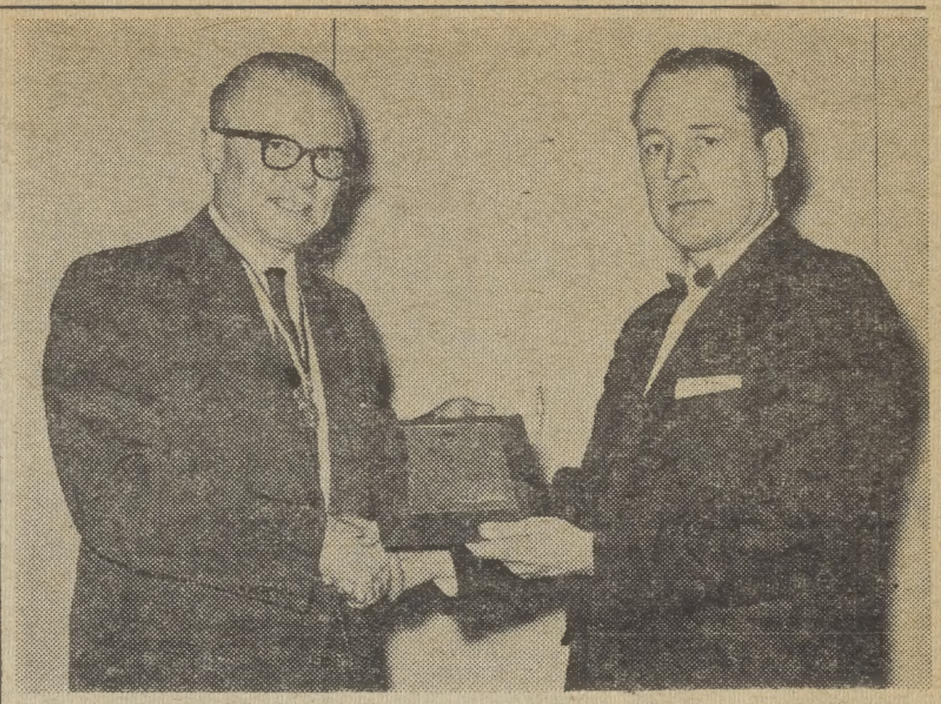
The Elmo Gees have been transferred to Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, and will be leaving us in the near future. Both have been active in the ward. Florence was released as Counselor in the Relief Society, her position being filled by Helene Christensen, and Elmo was released as teacher of the Aaronic Priesthood, this work now being done by Manton Moody.

Gee-Christensen Wed February 23

Geraldine Hope Gee, daughter of the Elmo Gees, was married to Bing Christensen, son of the Ted Christensens of Boise, Idaho, in the Oakland Third ward chapel, February 23, by Bishop Eugene S. Hilton. Both of these young people are students of Brigham Young University and will return to the campus to complete their courses.



DAVID ELLIOTT STEWART received his Duty to God award Feb. 17 in Hayward ward. All three sons of Bernard and Madge Stewart have now received this high scouting and church award.



ROBERT C. McCREA (right) receives Northern California Professional Photographers' award for outstanding photography, Jan. 12, at the associations annual banquet in San Francisco. The award was presented by Gerhard Baker, master of photography and dean of instruction at Winona School of Professional Photography, Winona Lake, Ill. (Only professional, full-time photographers may enroll at the school if they are able to pass entrance requirements). McCrea, a member of Hayward Second ward, is associated with Ash Custom Photography in Hayward. He submitted 8, 16x20 prints which were judged as a group. Professional Photographers of Northern California, largest group of its kind in the U.S., has more than 450 members.

Talent Show And Craft Displays

An outstanding event of the month was the Claremont Ward party held Friday night, February 15. The Sunday School prepared and served a chicken dinner, and the M.I.A., with Dorothy Bench in charge, arranged for a crafts and talent show. Displayed as crafts were needlepoint by Lenore Wood, pottery by Kaye Thorne, photography by Pet Crawley and LaMont Bench, models by Al Brooks, lapidary by Peggy Beale, flower arrangements by Geneva Hess, paintings by Frank Williams, and rug-making by Helen Madsen.

The talent portion of the program included piano solos by Beth Knecht, a vocal solo by Walter Aylett, Wyatt Ribarich played his accordian, Pat Mc Aneney danced a hula and sang with her sister, Rhoda Cano, June and Dave Jepson sang a duet, and Eddie Sniffen played the electric guitar and sang.

The Ward membership gave the Bishop a vote of confidence in contributing 1½% of our income to be used for Ward maintenance, budget, and welfare needs. It is hoped that everyone will support this effort.

The Mutual Marrieds held a potluck dinner February 2 at the home of Delores and Doug Bennion. After supper Dave Tucker showed slides taken during the time he spent in the Andes Mission.

The Mutual Marrieds and the High Priests held their firesides in conjunction at the home of Betty and Lawrence Cannon. Dr. David Cheek, gynecologist and obstetrician spoke to the group.

Temple Trip Is Set March 8-9

Members of Concord II who are interested in geneology work are urged to participate in the ward excursion to the L. A. Temple March 8 and 9. A bus has been hired, the Elders Quorum is planning a fund raising project to help defray costs; therefore expense should not keep anyone from coming on this trip. The bishopric and other ward leaders are going with the group, also. If you would like to participate, please contact the bishop.

The new Elder's Quorum project—wholesale food buying—is off to a good start, Bob Bolinder reports, with the first month's purchase being in the neighborhood of $300. Carvel Dansie is chairman, and Norman Hopkins secretary for this activity. You may contact either of them for more information, or to deposit your money in your "account." With the Church leaders placing more and more emphasis on the members becoming self-sufficient, there is no better time to make your purchases for year's supply of food. If every member of the ward would purchase even $5 worth of food a month through this joint effort, his year's supply would be accumulated painlessly.

Sounds of hammering and moving furniture drift out of the Thomas' abode these days, where Dorothy and Al are hurrying to complete a new bedroom, the occasion being the advent of a certain darkeyed, dark-haired adopted son, Brian. Their family of all girls is thrilled by the new member.

Stick Of Joseph Trial March 22

Jack H. West will present his famous "Trial of the Stick of Joseph" Friday night, March 22, at 8 p.m. at the San Francisco Stake Center, Hillside and Brunswick Streets in Daly City. This event will be of interest to investigators as well as members of he church and should be of special interest to all students.

Evidences of the authenicity of The Book of Mormon will be presented in regular court room procedure—a reproduction of Mr. West's now famous mock trial of the Book of Mormon before an entire class of law students. Mr. West, the only Mormon present, acting as attorney for the defense of the Book of Mormon won his case overwhelmingly. The Judge's words were, "In all my years in law I don't think I 've heard a case more nearly perfect than this one."

Mr. West has presented this unusual court trial before thousands of people with amazingly convincing results. His appearance in San Francisco is being arranged by Jean Mannig and Barnee Faulkner of the Daly City Ward Integration Committee.

There will be no admission charge. Everyone is invited to bring non-member friends to this unusual fireside.
